

FAQs

RSE Solution Resource

What's included in the RSE Solution Resource?

The Resource will provide everything your PSHE lead needs to teach effective RSE including:

- Teaching guidance to ensure high quality teaching and learning in the classroom
- Customisable templates for your policy, letter home to parents and a model scheme of work
- Six lesson plans for each year group that can be taught flexibly
- Downloadable visual resources for use in the lessons that are fully inclusive to ensure relevance to all pupils
- Integrated assessment strategies that can be used to provide evidence of impact.

What does the scheme of work include?

Each year groups' scheme of work is grouped by My feelings; My body; My relationships, My beliefs, My rights and responsibilities and Asking for help sections.

Where can I see a demo of the digital RSE Solution Resource?

Please view the demo at www.rseresource.org.uk.

Can I see a sample lesson plan?

You can view sample lesson plans at www.rseresource.org.uk.

Is the RSE Solution Resource right for my school?

Our Resource will suit all establishments' models of delivery and provide a spiral curriculum enabling flexible delivery. With the aid of this resource you can feel excited and confident to enjoy teaching RSE, knowing you are making a very real difference to the lives of your pupils.

How does the digital subscription work - can I view everything on my mobile phone and our class whiteboard?

Online subscriptions enable multi-user access on multiple devices. You can download the Resource via our app on your phone or tablet or online via your laptop or notebook. You can seamlessly switch from the Resource on your phone or tablet and then continue seamlessly on your classroom computer.

Can I track my progress?

Absolutely! Each lesson contains a self-assessment, so you can track your progress, supporting the school to demonstrate evidence of impact.

Can I add my own notes?

Yes, you can make notes as you progress through the lessons. Your notes can be amended or deleted at any time.

I don't know if our school needs this RSE Solution Resource – we are already teaching RSE.

To ensure your school is adhering to statutory RSHE teaching take our free RSHE self-assessment tool at www.rsesolution.org.uk. This self-assessment aligns the key requirements of the new guidance against a whole-school approach. It is quick to complete, providing schools with a RAG rated report to help them identify areas of strength and areas that will require development to ensure compliance with the new legal requirements on schools.

Who is the author?

Josie Rayner-Wells is an established national RSHE Adviser supporting public health, local authorities and individual schools to deliver needs-led, inclusive and aspirational RSHE. She has over 20 years' experience of teaching RSHE in some of the most challenging environments to some of the hardest to engage target groups. Josie uses her extensive teaching experience to develop effective RSHE at a strategic level writing strategies and guidance that foster a whole-school approach, delivering measurable evidence of impact.

Does the RSE Solution Resource cover all aspects of RSHE?

The Resource will provide everything your PSHE lead needs to teach effective RSE. Health education support and training can be purchased as a separate training course – for more information please contact us.

Our school is part of a MAT. Can we purchase the RSE Solution Resource for all our schools?

Absolutely! Please contact us directly to discuss a bespoke digital subscription.

What if I need support after purchasing the RSE Solution Resource?

We can help with our flexible menu of training and support and our Statutory RSHE Support Package. Please visit www.rseresource.org.uk for more information.

Find out more about the RSE Solution Resource at www.rseresource.org.uk or contact us at rseenquiry@educatorsolutions.org.uk or call us on 01603 307710.